(a) whether the conditions prescribed by the Government at the time of giving approval to the private companies for starting independent T.V. Channels are being carried out properly;

(b) if so, whether the 'Programme for Adults' viewing is being telecast according to the prescribed conditions;

(c) if not, the reasons, therefor;

(d) whether protests are being made on this action by various social organisations; and

(e) if so, the steps taken/being taken by the Government in this regard?

THE MINISTER OF CIVIL AVIATION AND MINISTER OF INFORMATION AND BROADCASTING (SHRI C.M. IBRAHIM): (a) As per extant Government policy no private company or an individual is permitted to set up an independent T.V. Channel in the country.

(b) and (c). Do not arise.

(d) and (e). Government is aware of protests made in this regard but the programmes telecast on foreign satellite television channels do not come within the ambit of Indian laws as these are uplinked from abroad. Cable Operators in India are, however, required to ensure that the programmes telecast on such channels whose reception requires the use of a specialised gadget-decoder, conform to the provisions of the programme/advertisement code prescribed under the Cable Television Networks Rules, 1994.
